1. Here are four boarding passes for international passengers leaving ex-Auckland. Put the passengers in order of departure. Write the am or pm time for each person's departure.

| \%  0  0  0    0 |  |  | U  d  0  0  0  0  0 |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  |  | emirates |  |  | gantas |
|  |  | comet |  |  | Numatamex |
|  |  | thom |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | $\begin{aligned} & \text { concerem } \\ & 23.55 \end{aligned}$ |  |  | 02.05 |

2. Zac's flight gets delayed by 120 minutes. Does he still leave before Lynley?

3. In the city of Split, in Croatia, you will find an ancient 24 -hour clock. It is part of the Town Hall built in the 15th century. Below are some new 24 -hour clock faces. Draws hands on the clocks to show how the standard times would be shown.

https://nzmaths.co.nz/resource/time-zones-1

4. New Zealand, like most former British colonies, uses 12 -hour am and pm time. Is that true of other countries in the world?
Use the internet to find out which countries use 24-hour time. List ten of these countries.
5. A shop is open from 7:30am to $6: 00 \mathrm{pm}$ on weekdays. How would the opening hours be written in 24 -hour time?
Is 24 -hour time or 12 -hour time a clearer way to show the opening times?
6. A person in New Zealand is trying to buy a house in France. The contract must set a final settlement date and time. The New Zealand lawyer writes 12:30 on Friday, 16 May on the contract.
The lawyer in Paris is confused. Why might that be?
