

Below is a drawing of the side of the house.

Find all of the angles of the pentagonal shape.

Use ruler and compass to construct a scale drawing of the side of the house.

Check the angle sizes using a protractor.

Find the height of the point X above the ground using two different methods.