

Dividing fractions: Sharing and partitioning

| | Dividend | Divisor | Quotient | How we know |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|---------|----------|-------------|
| The relay course is $1 \frac{1}{4}$ kilometres long. Three people are taking part. How much of the course do they each run? $1 \frac{3}{4} \div 3 = \square$ | | | | |
| I have $3 \frac{1}{3}$ metres of fabric. I want to make 3 bags for my friend for Christmas. How much fabric will I have for each bag? $3 \frac{1}{3} \div 3 = \square$ | | | | |
| There are $1 \frac{3}{8}$ pizzas left to share between 2 people. How much pizza do they each get? $1 \frac{3}{8} \div 2 = \square$ | | | | |
| | $\frac{3}{4}$ | 4 | | |
| | $4 \frac{1}{2}$ | 6 | | |