Money Marvels: Does it stack up?

The time has come when Granny has decided to empty her huge jar full of coins. She stacks the coins like so.

Being the eldest of the grandchildren you get to select which pile of coins you would like first.

- 1. Which pile of coins are you going to take?
- 2. Total each stack of coins record how you totaled each stack.
- 3. Are all the grand children going to be happy? Why or Why not?
